The trend towards clear and simple shapes is unbroken. The lights in the PHOENIX range combine these design elements and make you an eye-catcher in your living area. The elegant ceiling lights create a cosy atmosphere and blend beautifully into modern living spaces. The light is made of white plastic with a high-quality edge in matt nickel. The brightness can also be individually adjusted using an external trailing edge phase dimmer to give your living space the desired ambience. Whether in your living room, in a long hallway, alone or combined, the ceiling light impresses with a diameter of 30 cm. The built-in LEDs have 3000 Kelvin and 1500 lumen. Thanks to the LED technology used, the ceiling light is also characterised by its extremely low energy consumption.
